From your experiences from this month what suggestions would you have for the Workplace
HIV/ Wellness Committee?

The Swedish Workplace HIV/AIDS Programme (SWHAP) is a joint initiative by the International Council of Swedish Industry (NIR) and the Swedish Industrial and Metalworkers' Union (IF Metall). It is a long-term strategy to contribute to the establishment and/or support of HIV and AIDS programmes at Swedish related workplaces in Sub-Saharan Africa. SWHAP is cofunded by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency, Sida.

The Swedish Industrial and Metalworkers' Union (IF Metall) organises more than 380,000 members at nearly 12,400 workplaces, affiliated to 52 local branches. IF Metall is aiming to safeguard the members' interest and strength in order to create the best possible conditions in working life as well as in society at large. This includes an extensive cooperation with trade unions internationally.
